Austerity Measures is a powerful and moving collection of poems that explores the impact of the financial crisis on Greece. Written by some of the most talented poets in Greece, these poems offer a unique perspective on the human toll of austerity.

The poems in Austerity Measures are as diverse as the people of Greece itself. Some poems are angry and defiant, while others are more somber and reflective. But all of the poems in this collection are deeply moving and thought-provoking.

What unites the poems in Austerity Measures is a sense of hope. Despite the hardships that they have endured, the people of Greece have not given up on their dreams. They continue to fight for a better future, and their voices are heard in the poems of Austerity Measures.

If you are interested in learning more about the impact of austerity on Greece, or if you simply enjoy reading great poetry, then I highly recommend Austerity Measures. This collection is a testament to the power of poetry to speak truth to power and to give voice to the voiceless.

Here is a selection of poems from Austerity Measures:

- "The Crisis" by Kiki Dimoula
- "Austerity" by Yorgos Chouliaras
- "The Ballad of the Unemployed" by Dimitris Tsaloumas
- "Hope" by Michalis Ganas

Austerity Measures is a powerful and moving collection of poems that offers a unique perspective on the human toll of austerity. I highly recommend this collection to anyone who is interested in learning more about Greece or who simply enjoys reading great poetry.
