Little Maggie

The image displays the musical notation for the song 'Little Maggie'. It consists of four systems of music. Each system includes a guitar chord chart above a six-line staff. The chords are G, F, D, C, B, and A. The lyrics are written below the staff. The first system covers the first two lines of lyrics, the second system covers the next two lines, the third system covers the next two lines, and the fourth system covers the final line of lyrics.

Over yon-der stands lit-tle Mag-gie with a dram glass in her hand. She's a drink-down her trou-bles and a court-in' an-oth-er man.

Over yonder stands little Maggie
With a dram glass in her hand;
She's a-drinking away her troubles
And a-courtin' another man.

Oh how can I ever stand it
To see those two blue eyes:
They're shining in the moonlight
Like two diamonds in the sky.

Pretty flowers were made for blooming
Pretty stars were made to shine;
Pretty women were made for loving
Little Maggie was made for mine.

Oh, the last time I saw little Maggie,
She was sitting on the banks of the sea.
With her forty-four strapped around her
And a banjo on her knee.

I'm going down to the station
With my suitcase in my hand;
I'm going to leave this country
I'm going to some far and distant land.

Go 'way, go 'way little Maggie,
Go and do the best you can.
I'll get me another woman
You can get you another man.
