Five missed calls from her ex-husband the day after he picked up their daughter. Clairah is desperate to get to Marfaulis Island, but the next ferry doesn't leave for hours. She's stranded on the mainland with only clothes on her back and no charger. Her ears ringing from the call with John's new girlfriend, Clairah's mind turns as it often does to Adam, who should be eleven years old, but isn't.

Adam spends his after life doing everything he can to nudge his splintered family together. Not an easy feat when his parents and his sister can't see or hear him.

When they hurt the most, Clairah, John and Anjelleah can feel Adam's presence, but in order to heal they have to find a way to listen to him to the cries of their broken hearts that beat in place of his.
