What's Inside Guided Practice for Reading Growth?

Guided Practice for Reading Growth is divided into five sections, each of which focuses on a different aspect of reading:

- Phonemic Awareness: This section helps children develop the ability to hear and manipulate the sounds in words. This is an essential skill for learning to read, as it allows children to identify and blend the sounds in words.
- Phonics: This section helps children learn the relationship between letters and sounds. This is another essential skill for learning to read, as it allows children to decode words.
- Fluency: This section helps children develop the ability to read smoothly and quickly. This is important for comprehension, as it allows children to focus on the meaning of the text rather than on decoding the words.
- Vocabulary: This section helps children build their vocabulary. This is important for comprehension, as it allows children to understand the meaning of the words they are reading.
- Comprehension: This section helps children develop the ability to understand what they read. This is the ultimate goal of reading, as it allows children to learn from and enjoy what they read.
