Haiku In The Time Of Pandemic is a collection of poems that explores the emotions and experiences of living through a global pandemic. The poems capture the feelings of isolation, loss, and uncertainty, but also the hope and resilience that can be found in even the darkest of times.

The poems in this collection are written in the traditional haiku form, which consists of three lines with five syllables in the first line, seven syllables in the second line, and five syllables in the third line. This simple form allows the poems to capture a moment in time, a feeling, or an emotion with great clarity and precision.

The poems in Haiku In The Time Of Pandemic are divided into four sections: Isolation, Loss, Resilience, and Hope. Each section explores a different aspect of the pandemic experience.

The poems in the Isolation section capture the feelings of loneliness and disconnection that many people have experienced during the pandemic. The poems in the Loss section explore the grief and mourning that many people have experienced as a result of the pandemic. The poems in the Resilience section celebrate the strength and resilience of the human spirit. And the poems in the Hope section offer a message of hope and optimism for the future.

Haiku In The Time Of Pandemic is a powerful and moving collection of poems that captures the emotions and experiences of living through a global pandemic. The poems in this collection are a testament to the human spirit's ability to endure even the darkest of times.
