Unveiling the Truth in the Shadows of War

John Lescroart, the master of legal thrillers, transports readers to the heart of a haunting mystery in his gripping novel, In Vietnam. Prepare to embark on a captivating journey that delves into the complexities of war, justice, and redemption.

A Detective Haunted by the Past

Detective Abe Glitsky, a seasoned veteran of the Vietnam War, is called upon to investigate the murder of a homeless man in San Francisco. As he digs deeper into the case, he stumbles upon a sinister secret that has been buried for decades.

A Dark Legacy from a Distant War

The clues lead Glitsky back to the jungles of Vietnam, where he uncovers a web of deception and betrayal that reaches the highest echelons of power. As he pieces together the puzzle, he discovers that the murder victim was a key witness to a war crime that has haunted the nation's conscience.

A Quest for Justice Amidst the Darkness

Driven by a relentless pursuit of justice, Glitsky navigates a labyrinth of political intrigue and military secrecy. He risks his life and reputation to expose the truth, but powerful forces are determined to keep the past buried.

A Haunting Exploration of War's Scars

In Vietnam is not merely a legal thriller but a poignant exploration of the lasting effects of war on both individuals and society. Through Glitsky's journey, readers witness the psychological scars, moral dilemmas, and the struggle for redemption that linger long after the fighting has ceased.
