About the Book

Nothing Left to Lose is a memoir by Wells, a young man who struggled with addiction for years. From his first drink at the age of 14 to his eventual recovery, Wells shares his experiences with honesty and rawness. He describes the highs and lows of addiction, the pain it caused him and his loved ones, and the strength it took to finally get sober.

Nothing Left to Lose is not just a story about addiction. It's also a story about hope, redemption, and the power of the human spirit. Wills' journey is an inspiration to anyone who has ever struggled with addiction, or knows someone who has.

Reviews

"Nothing Left to Lose is a powerful and moving memoir that will stay with you long after you finish reading it. Wills' writing is honest, raw, and unflinching, and his story is both heartbreaking and inspiring. This is a must-read for anyone who has ever struggled with addiction, or knows someone who has." - Goodreads reviewer

"Wills' memoir is a powerful and inspiring story of addiction and recovery. His writing is honest, raw, and unflinching, and he does not shy away from the darkest aspects of his addiction. But through it all, there is a glimmer of hope and redemption. This is a must-read for anyone who has ever struggled with addiction, or knows someone who has." - Our Book Library reviewer
