Synopsis

Stryker is a dragon shifter bodyguard with a reputation for being ruthless and efficient. He has been hired to protect the beautiful and innocent Lady Anya from a dangerous threat.

Anya is a woman of strength and spirit, but she is also vulnerable and alone. She has never had anyone to protect her, and she is not sure she can trust Stryker.

As Stryker and Anya spend more time together, they begin to develop a bond. Stryker is drawn to Anya's strength and kindness, and Anya is drawn to Stryker's protectiveness and loyalty.

But their relationship is not without its challenges. Stryker is a dragon shifter, and Anya is a human. Their different worlds and cultures make it difficult for them to find common ground.

And then there is the threat that Anya is facing. A powerful and evil sorcerer is determined to destroy her, and Stryker is the only one who can stop him.

Stryker and Anya must learn to trust each other and work together if they want to survive. But can their love survive the challenges that face them?

Excerpt

“Stryker watched Anya from across the room. She was talking to a group of people, her face animated and her laughter tinkling like bells. She was so beautiful, so innocent.

He had been hired to protect her, but he found himself wanting to do more than that. He wanted to cherish her, to keep her safe from all harm.

But he knew that their relationship was not without its challenges. He was a dragon shifter, and she was a human. Their different worlds and cultures made it difficult for them to find common ground.

And then there was the threat that Anya was facing. A powerful and evil sorcerer was determined to destroy her, and Stryker was the only one who could stop him.

Stryker knew that he had to protect Anya, no matter what the cost. But could he also protect his own heart?"
