The Swede Denver Rebels are a hockey dynasty in the making. The team is led by Swedish phenom Erik Gustafsson, who is one of the most talented young players in the world. The Rebels have won two straight national championships and are poised to make a run at a third this year.

Gustafsson is a dynamic playmaker who can score goals and set up his teammates with equal ease. He is also a strong skater and defender. In his two seasons with the Rebels, he has scored 50 goals and 100 assists in 75 games.

In addition to Gustafsson, the Rebels have a number of other talented players, including forwards Alex Newhook and Cole Caufield, and defensemen Bowen Byram and Justin Barron. The team is coached by David Carle, who is one of the most respected coaches in college hockey.

The Rebels are a dominant force in college hockey. They have won 20 of their 25 games this season, and they are ranked No. 1 in the nation. They are the favorites to win the national championship this year, and they are poised to make a run at a dynasty.
